Come, and bring the canvas of your soul to an intersection of Holy scripture, music, and art. Enjoy a morning filled with the imagery and meaning of the Good Shepherd, highlighted by the creation of a mural by celebrated artist, Pastor Paul Oman.

Here's what the morning looks like:

- 8:30 AM “The Shepherd Image from Scripture” with Professor Sarah Henrich from Luther Seminary. Enjoy a hearty breakfast as Professor Henrich speaks about the visual arts and the Bible, with a special interest in the shepherd theme in the Bible.
- 9:45 AM “The Shepherd Revealed: Old Testament”
- 10:45 AM “The Good Shepherd Revealed: New Testament”
- 11:40 AM Q & A Session with Paul Oman

Pastor Paul Oman is a Lutheran pastor serving a parish in western Wisconsin. He also is a professional visual artist. Over the years his work has been exhibited throughout the Midwest. More recently he has done paintings in worship settings in order for people to see his work come to life before their eyes.

Sarah Henrich is Professor of New Testament at Luther Seminary in St. Paul. Besides being a Bible scholar she has a deep interest in the relationship between the scriptures and the arts.
