Gregory Peterson, Organist

Gregory Peterson is Professor of Music and College Organist at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, where he teaches applied organ, church music, music history, and January Term courses abroad. He is also conductor of Luther Ringers. From 2011-2017 he was Head of the Music Department.

A respected leader in the field of church music, Dr. Peterson served the historic Old South Church in Boston, Massachusetts as Organist and Minister of Music from 1997-2005. Prior to his appointment in Boston he was Visiting Assistant Professor of Music and Christ Chapel Organist at Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minnesota. He has also been a visiting professor at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington, and served as music director for churches in Connecticut, Iowa, Minnesota and Washington. For the past ten seasons, he has served as organist for the annual Christmas Festival concerts by the National Lutheran Choir.

Gregory Peterson earned the BA degree in music at Luther College. He holds the MM degree from Yale University in the Institute of Sacred Music where he was Hugh Giles Scholar and received the Harry B. Jepson Memorial Scholarship. He received the DMA degree in organ performance and pedagogy from the University of Iowa where he was a Rahn Scholar and teaching assistant. He has participated in the Summer Institute for French Organ Study and the Gothenburg International Organ Academy in Sweden.
