

Easter: Led by Hope

READ THE STORY: Luke 24:1-12, when the women discover an empty tomb (Spark Story Bible page 482).

WONDER:

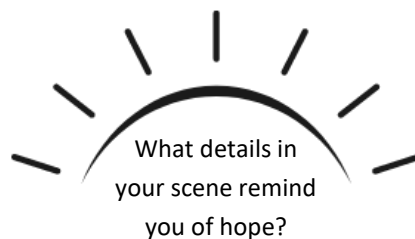

- How do you think the women felt when they didn't see Jesus' body in the tomb?
- Why do you think the other disciples didn't believe the women?
- Has there ever been a time when something turned out even better than you could have imagined?
- What do you do to stay hopeful and curious?

LISTEN: Come With Me by Holly M. McGhee, illustrated by Pascal Lemaître. Published by G.P. Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers, 2017. Find a read-along on YouTube here.

- What might have happened if the girl decided it was too scary to go to the subway or the market or the park?
- What are some things you do when the news seems scary?
- How can you help other people to be hopeful and curious about the world?

CREATE: Create a sunrise scene to remind you to be hopeful.

PRAY: Dear God, thank you for showing us that there is hope, even when everything seems scary. Help us to stay curious enough to believe that good things are possible. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

from the Art Julz blog