

Full to the Brim—Songs for an Expansive Holy Week

Explore these holy days through the powerful experience of music, which defies the distinction between sacred and secular. The playlist below was curated by A Sanctified Art for the “Full to the Brim” Holy Week. Which songs speak to you?

Palm Sunday

- “Speak Boldly” by Spencer LaJoye
- “Raise My Voice” by Robbie Seay
- “Nina Cried Power” by Hozier
- “We’ve Had Enough” by Michael Jackson

“Music can speak to us in ways words alone can’t, drawing us into the expansive life God desires for us.”

-from A Sanctified Art blog

Maundy Thursday

- “Eventide” by Jordan Mackampa
- “Vulnerable” by Selena Gomez
- “Fall Apart Too” by Katelyn Tarver
- “Fortress” by Queens of the Stone Age

Good Friday

- “Cup of Sorrow” by Amos Lee
- “Find Me in the River” by Delirious?
- “Anthem” by Leonard Cohen
- “Were You There?” arr. Norman Luboff
- “Looking For An Answer” by Linkin Park

Easter Sunday

- “Love Had a Dream” by Amanda Udis-Kessler
- “How Could I Ask for More” by Cindy Morgan
- “Death Was Arrested” by North Point InsideOut
- “What a Wonderful World” by Louis Armstrong