

Palm Sunday: Even the Stones Cry Out

READ THE STORY: Luke 19:28-40, when Jesus enters Jerusalem (Spark Story Bible page 454).

WONDER:

- Why do you think the religious leaders wanted the parade to stop?
- What do you think Jesus meant when he said the stones would shout out?
- Have you ever felt like someone wanted you to stay quiet instead of telling the truth?

LISTEN: Speak Up by Miranda Paul, illustrated by Ebony Glenn. Published by Clarion Books, 2020. Find a read-along on YouTube here.

- Can you think of a time when you spoke up?
- There are lots of ways to speak up without our voices—what ways can you think of? (Sign language, smiling, hugging, writing, painting and drawing, etc.)
- What is something that is really important to talk about?

CREATE: Make a pile of stones—real stones, or using craft paper and glue to create a cairn like the picture here from A Colorful Journey—to remind you to always speak the truth.

PRAY: Dear God, thank you for giving us many ways to speak. Help us to use our voices and bodies to speak up and tell the truth. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen
