James E. Bobb is the Elliot M. and Klara Stockdal Johnson Associate Professor of Organ and Church Music at St. Olaf College, director of the St. Olaf Cantorei, and Cantor to the Student Congregation. Bobb holds performer's certificates and M.M. degrees and in organ and harpsichord performance and literature from the Eastman School of Music where his teachers included Russell Saunders and David Craighead in organ and Arthur Haas in harpsichord. Following in the Lutheran cantorial tradition, Bobb regularly composes or improvises music for weekly worship and directs the 80-voice St. Olaf Cantorei in concerts, worship services, and the annual St. Olaf Christmas Festival.

Catherine Rodland, whose playing has been described as "transcendent" (The American Organist), is Artist in Residence at St. Olaf College in Northfield, MN. She graduated cum laude with departmental distinction in organ performance from St. Olaf in 1987 and received both the MM and DMA from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY. At Eastman, Catherine received the prestigious Performer's Certificate and the Ann Anway Award for excellence in organ performance. She is a prizewinner in several competitions including the 1994 and 1998 American Guild of Organists Young Artists Competition, the 1994 Calgary International Organ Competition, and the 1988 International Organ Competition at the University of Michigan for which she received first prize. Catherine has concertized extensively throughout the United States and Canada, and has been featured often on the syndicated radio program "Pipedreams" on National Public Radio. She was a featured performer at the American Guild of Organists National Convention online in July 2020.

Catherine Rodland has been the organist of the Colonial Church of Edina since September, 2016.
