

Play a Game: Two Truths and a Lie

On a quest for what is true, and how you know.

How to Play: Gather your family, friends, or neighbors. Each member of the group introduces themselves by stating two truths and one lie about themselves. One at a time, each person shares their statements. The group has to guess which statements are true and which statement is the lie.

For more detailed instructions and ideas for statements you could use, follow this link.

Reflect:

- Were you able to fool anyone with your “lie?”
- What fun facts do you learn about each other?
- How could you tell if someone’s statement was true or not? What clues did you look for?
- How can you tell what is TRUTH, when it comes to faith and God?
- The “Two Truths and a Lie” game is meant to be fun and funny. But figuring out the truth when it comes to important stuff is no laughing matter! Here are a few truths about you and God that you can hold on to, and that you can find in the Bible and the teachings of our church:
 - God is with you and loves you, no matter what. Check out Romans 8:38-39.
 - Your life matters. Check out Ephesians 2:10.
 - Jesus brings light and hope into darkness and despair. Check out John 1:5.
- What important truths would you add to this list?
